

Platform Responds to Press Speculation Regarding its Agricultural Solutions Segment

June 7, 2018

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., June 07, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Platform Specialty Products Corporation (NYSE:PAH) ("Platform") responded to press reports regarding its Agricultural Solutions segment today.

Management Comment

"As we announced in August of last year, we have been pursuing a separation of our businesses into two standalone companies. The primary purpose of the separation is to maximize value for our shareholders and enable these businesses to best execute on their respective strategies for growth. To achieve that goal, consistent with our public statements over the past few months, we have been and will continue to be opportunistic in pursuing separation alternatives. In that context, we have had discussions with Wilmcote Holdings plc as well as several other parties. We will choose the path for our separation that creates an optimal outcome for our shareholders. We are fortunate to have options, and we will keep all of our stakeholders apprised as and when appropriate."
